

Harsh Environmental Conditions - Definition

I. Environmental Conditions

Where environmental conditions exceed the conditions under which the products were tested in accredited laboratories.

II. Continuous direct contact with the ground.

III. Continuous direct contact with water.

Building for the Future